There is an upward movement in Potasi.

It is still snowing in White Pine county.

Senator Williams has returned from below.

Measles has broke out among the children of the State University.

Three bats of bullion arrived at the U. S. Assay Office last night from Gold Hill.

Mrs. George Shaw, sister-in-law of Shaw of the Hot Springs, left for her home in Humboldt Co. last night.

The dispatches state that four Mormon elders were probably massacred near Atlanta, Ga., yesterday, by indignant citizens.

Allen Bragg, after several months of severe sickness, is once more back on the Gazette very much improved in health, and able to wield the quill with old time vigor.

Every horse afflicted with the glanders should be shot forthwith. Every man who owns a glandered horse, knowing him to be glandered, and sells him to another, should also be shot forthwith—if not sooner.

The San Francisco Bulletin has finally decided that the journalistic world is moving and it must wake up to get into the procession. It has discarded its blanket proportions and become a sprightly, eight page paper.

At last California's building at the World's Fair is finished, and citizens of the Golden States who are in Chicago who will not feel inclined to register from Kalamazoo, Mich., or Oshkosh, Wis., to conceal their identity and hide their shame.—Post.

Silver Dick Bland now repeats the declaration of the St. Louis Republic for a new party alignment. He says:

"No man in Missouri can survive the demand for free coinage who oppose it. If the Democratic party will not give us free coinage, I am in favor of the party that will."

General Weaver United States Senator from Iowa. That sounds good. Wouldn't they make a team—he and brave, honest, courageous old Senator Stewart?

The United States house of lords would get a shaking up that would make the dry bones rattle.

THE BUCKEYE WAR.

The Sheriff Brings In the Army

Night before last the Sheriff reached Genoa with nine prisoners of war, whom he arrested in the Buckeye District. They were as follows:

Peter Millich, Louis Stevenson, Ed. Stevenson, the Trimmer brothers Ed. Wyott, Farley Parker and Chas. Dudley. The Sheriff left ten men at work on the claim.

It appears that ever since the claims were discovered there has been trouble over them, and as a result all interested in the ownership, met in Abe Cohn's store and drew up an agreement relative to the working of the claims and deposited it in the Bullion Bank. The agreement stipulated that they should hire an outside party to work the claims, who was in no way related to any of the owners.

They hired a Dutch Flat placer miner named Dolittle and he worked there five weeks with a gang of men, but the result was not satisfactory and he was discharged.

Messrs. Morrison and Jaqua were then put on and they struck into the rich part of the claim, and were getting out about $250 a week when the Millich-Stevenson faction swooped down and drove them off.

The parties interested in the Black Horse are Dick, Joe and Ed. Raycraft, Louis and Ed. Stevenson, Henry Morrison, A. Cohn, Jim Lohr, George Givevich and D. W. Virgin. Frank Golden owned the cabin, that was so badly shot up and had several rifles and six shooters there. He says that he will spend a thousand dollars to bring the parties to time who so wantonly destroyed his property.

Some weeks ago Judge Cheney granted an injunction against the claim, but no one appears to have paid much attention to it. There was no trouble while the mine ran behind, but as soon as it began to run ahead and show considerable free gold glittering in the sluice boxes, everybody appeared to have oiled up his Winchester and got his six shooter in working order.

The party attacked had plenty of arms and ammunition to have made a hot fight, but were caught napping and some distance from their weapons when the attacking party came in.

It is claimed that Pete Millich told a man several days ago that he was going up there to fight and might be packed out dead.

Later—Since the above was in type it is learned from Wm. Woodburn, who was called to Genoa as the attorney for the Stevenson crowd, that the men were not arrested, but came to Genoa in a four-horse wagon, gave themselves up, and are now in custody of the Sheriff, under $500 bonds.

The Stevensons claim that Raycraft fired the first shot.

Beauty Contest.

It is a matter of common talk that Carson contains more beautiful women than any town in the State. The question is often discussed as to who is the most beautiful woman in Carson. In order to settle the discussion the APPEAL has decided to leave it to a popular vote.

The polls close at 6 o'clock, July 3rd. Persons wishing to vote have but to cut out the vote and send it to the APPEAL office.

BEAUTY CONTEST.

NAME:

A Snag.

Purcell, who was whipped by Dunn, says he unconsciously ran up against a snag in his last fight. Dunn fought four rounds with Creedon and had the fight all his own way, cutting Creedon's face severely up to the fourth round, when Creedon put him out with a chance blow. Afterwards Creedon had the best of an eight round draw with Hall, who recently defeated Frank Slavin. In view of the above facts it looks as if Purcell was outclassed by Dunn.

Allen and Purcell are talking fight, but Allen wants a side bet of $500, and Purcell hasn't the money.

For Rent.

Parties desiring furnished rooms for housekeeping should apply at the White House. Terms on application.

The weather is warming up.

THE TELEPHONE.

Hello, Justice Hawthorne.

Hello.

A—How did you come out with your fees and costs in the Thaxter case?

H—At the little end of the horn. I supposed with well-to-do people they would regard it as a matter of honor to settle, but it looks as if they don't regard it that way. Well, I'll know what to do next time.

Hello, Colburn.

Hello.

A—Did you send that red hot dispatch to Secretary Carlisle yet?

C—I had a red hot one written that would have made him fall clear off his chair, but when I began to figure up the telegraph charges I concluded that perhaps a mere individual expression of my opinion might not, after all, be indispensable to the running of the Government at this time.

Hello, Nevada delegation.

Hello.

A—Do you think you fellows will control the Federal patronage of Nevada.

N D—Hope to thunder we won't. We have promised so many people office that the only way to light gracefully on our feet is to have some body else run the Federal patronage this time.

Our Dick Still Winning.

On Tuesday Senator Williams' horse "Our Dick" won another race in San Francisco. The following is from the Examiner:

Our Dick was a hot favorite in the free-for-all pacing, mile heats, and took the first heat easily enough in 2:16. The pools were 100 for Dick, 32 for the field.

Before the horses were called up for the second heat pools sold at 25 on Dick, 8 for the field. Our Dick took water first, with Rosie C. a nose to the rear. At the quarter McDowell's mare drew up on even terms and they went together like a double team for more than half the circle.

Rosie was called on for a slight advance and made a game response. She was not allowed to hold her shadow of advantage more than ten seconds, however, as Dick forged ahead and entered the stretch half a length in front, going easily and apparently waiting for somebody to urge greater speed. Rosie and Tom both decided to be accommodating and came on with a rush. Rosie was on his wheels in a flash, and it was only by prompt action that Keating saved himself from defeat.

The judges decided it to be a dead heat. All three of the horses came in so close together that they could have been covered with a blanket. Dick ought to have won.

The third heat was a picnic for Dick. He started slightly in the lead and never was touched, Rosie and Tom following him in the order named. Time 2:16.

The Killed and Wounded.

The following is a list of those who went down before the fire of Cleveland's goldbug gun which raked the Mint early this week:

From Superintendent's department, J. P. Parkinson, A. M. McCabe and C. H. Witherill (resigned); from the Assay department, H. R. Mighels, T. Stiles and Mas Ollie Bray; from the General department, Ed. Cutts, G. A. Nuss, C. H. Maish, C. W. Calvin, Guy Spencer and H. McInnis; from the Melting and Refining department, W. H. Harris, Chas. Starratt, G. W. Cagwin, Dana Brown and Henry Austin; from the Coining department, W. H. M. Cobb, Jno. Doane, G. W. Keith, J. Merrick, W. Dovey, C. Bailey, N. Jellerson, Robert Mudd, Jerry Coughlin, George McLaughlin and all the lady adjusters.

Cohn's Clearance Sale.

It is now only occasionally necessary to allude to the great clearance sale of Mr. Cohn's. His big adv. in the APPEAL, started the public towards the sale and they have been staying with it every since.

Never in this city were ladies able to purchase dress goods so cheaply as at Cohn's clearance sale and the ladies are about the sharpest buyers in the town. The sale will last but a little while longer.

Dog Owners Attention.

Owners of Dogs not having paid their Dog tax are requested to do so at once. All persons failing to do so will be dealt with according to the Ordinance having reference to Dogs.

Wm. Kinney, City Marshal.
